

TENNESSEE DISABILITY MEGA CONFERENCE

Speaker Spotlight

Wednesday, May 28, 2008

Mike May www.senderogroup.com

Mike May has been a pioneer in new product and business development in a variety of industries for 25 years. He founded the Sendero Group to make location information accessible to people who are blind or visually impaired.

Judith Snow www.interclusion.com

Judith Snow, a trailblazer in training/education for 30+ years throughout North America and Europe. Her models have had thousands labeled disabled getting job, homes, new relationships and support, i.e. full community participation.

Thursday, May 29, 2008

Juliette Rizzo

From covering and coordinating national news stories as a journalist to being selected by an organizing committee of the Atlanta Olympic Games to carry the Olympic torch, Juliette Rizzo has proven that personal dreams and goals are within reach for people with disabilities when the appropriate supports are in place.

Bart Stevens

www.bssnp.com
Bart Stevens, CEO, President. Certified Special Needs Planner with Bart Stevens Special Needs Planning, LLC.

Dave Hingsburger

Dave Hingsburger has worked 25+ years providing support to people with disabilities. His work has been the subject of a television documentary on the Discovery Channel and on the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's "Moving On" program.

Friday, May 30, 2008

Nelson Lauver

www.theamericanstoryteller.com
Nelson Lauver is a journalist, broadcaster, humorist, motivational speaker and disabilities advocate. He is the creator and host of the nationally syndicated feature, The American Storyteller Radio Journal.

John McKnight

www.northwestern.edu/ipr/abcd.html
For nearly three decades, John McKnight has conducted research on social service delivery systems, health policy, community organizations, neighborhood policy, and institutional racism.

Tracee Pickett

www.traceeandcompany.com
Education and Early Teaching Experience: Columbia College Chicago, School of the Art Institute of Chicago. Development and Implementation: fine art education programming (smArt programs) in private & public schools, fine arts centers.